UPDATES IN CARDIOLOGY FOR THE COMMUNITY CLINICIAN

Program Chair

Dave Ramnauth, MD, FACC
Director of Outpatient Cardiology

Statement of Need • Advances in cardiovascular medicine and technology evolve at a rapid pace and directly affect clinical guidelines. Physicians and allied health professionals need continuous updates on the most recent guidelines to offer their patients innovative treatment. In a busy clinical practice, it can be a challenge to stay abreast with the most recent advances and guidelines. This NYP Queens Division of Cardiology continuing medical education program will provide community clinicians and allied health professionals with the latest guidelines that are clinically relevant in cardiovascular medicine and practice. Program attendees will have an opportunity to review challenging cases, enhance clinical knowledge and expertise, and interact with the program faculty of renowned practitioners and educators.

Target Audience • Primary care physicians, cardiologists, fellows, residents, medical students, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, and all cardiac health care providers.

Educational Objectives • It is intended that this NewYork-Presbyterian Queens continuing medical education activity will lead to improved patient care. At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:

- Describe lipid management for daily practice.
- Discuss the evidence of percutaneous left atrial appendage closure.
- Specify indications for transcatheter mitral and aortic valve intervention and appropriate indications for referral to a valvular treatment team.
- Discuss management options for acute decompensated heart failure.
- Describe coronary critical unit innovations.
- Review the impacts of cardio-oncology in daily practice.

Accreditation • NewYork-Presbyterian Queens is accredited by the Medical Society of the State of New York to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

NewYork-Presbyterian Queens designates this live activity for a maximum of 3.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Statement • NewYork-Presbyterian Queens relies upon planners and faculty participants in its CME activities to provide educational information that is objective and free of bias. In this spirit, and in accordance with the guidelines of MSSNY and ACCME, all speakers and planners for CME activities must disclose any relevant financial relationships with commercial interests whose products, devices or services may be discussed in the content of a CME activity that might be perceived as a real or apparent conflict of interest. Any discussion of investigational or unlabeled uses of a product will be identified.

Registration Fees • $50 Physicians / $25 General Registrants / No Fee for Physicians-in-training, NYP Queens Physicians & Staff (copy of NYP Queens ID required with registration). Fee includes continental breakfast, catered hot buffet lunch and course materials.

Cancellation Policy • Refunds will only be made upon receipt of written notification a minimum of five work days prior to the session.

Special Needs • Participants with disabilities or special needs are requested to contact the Office of Continuing Medical Education at 718-670-1419.
